Members' Orientation Program: Photo opportunity and briefing

Ottawa, Ontario – October 28, 2019

The House of Commons Administration provides all new Members of Parliament with an orientation program outlining the support and services available to them.

As part of this program, a Members' Orientation Centre has been established in the Wellington Building. New MPs are invited to attend personalized meetings and small group orientation sessions with House Administration subject-matter experts to assist them in getting started in their new role and setting up their constituency and Hill offices. Key topics include an overview of the Parliamentary Precinct, human resources and staffing, financial resources, and the digital infrastructure.

A photo opportunity will take place in the Wellington Building at the beginning of the group orientation session.

Date	Time	Location
Tuesday, October 29, 2019	9:00 a.m.*	Wellington Building, 3rd floor lobby

*Media should arrive no later than 8:45 a.m.
