Introducing Procedural Info

Ottawa, Ontario – May 12, 2022

The Honourable Anthony Rota, Speaker of the House of Commons, is pleased to launch the redesigned parliamentary procedure section of the House of Commons website called Procedural Info. This site makes it easier to browse procedural reference material and includes a new section of selected Speakers' decisions. The enhanced search tool draws results from all resources under Procedural Info to facilitate efficient, quality research.

The user-friendly landing page is in line with web standards and best practices.

Remember to bookmark Procedural Info on your Internet browser as this page will be your main source for all procedural reference material. Previously bookmarked pages will not be lost in the transition.
